

Song: Annihilate U | Artist: Koresh Ft. SoulYah

Álbum: Get Sirius! | Instrumental: Spiracy

1st Verse

Competition is scared cause they know when I come thru with my crew becomes impossible to mess with me or you
you know is true SoulYah get ready to diss playa-haters too fools should be afraid to mention us in a tune
they know my name
Sirius aka The Dogg Star or call me
"Rain"
cause I drop bombs on your game causing strain running over you like a train don't forget that I'm insane the more I rap, the more confidence I gain lame ass move you ass out the way I don't play with the words I'm a savage always ready to cause damage Annihilate your image and your entire village I'm vintage,
from any point of vantage insensitive so anything becomes my incentive to relieve you from the pathetic life you live fool

Chorus x2 | Koresh

Is time to annihilate these suckers I come to eliminate make 'em crumble like cookies on a plate
writing superior rhymes constantly destroying their minds

the world is mine

3rd Verse | Koresh

You b!tch3s are dying to be in my position
I'm the playa with a mission I made the decision to take over there's more in me than this nice cover I've been scheming ever since I was baby screaming fining to become the King in the world I'm living speaking words that actually have a meaning so now tell me how is it feeling to see on the top
the number one villain
the underdog became the pillar asking Yahweh to keep me from being a sinner exterminating competition like the camps of FEMA, being the winner is my only end, so don't pretend to be my friend if what you intend is to put a stop to my ascent I'm Heaven sent so every rule I was able to bend every odd against me, gave me the strength and every obstacle able to brake to get ahead, to be the head

make 'em crumble like

Annihilate U

cookies on a plate
